

Participation is open to:

- Representatives of patient organisations from the EPF membership (aiming for balanced representation across geographic and disease areas);
- Representatives of health professionals: Generalist and specialist doctors, general and specialist nurses, community and hospital pharmacists, and others as relevant;
- Healthcare and hospital managers;
- Member States' representatives and relevant bodies patient safety or quality bodies at national level;
- EU-level decision-makers (European Commission, European Parliament);
- Experts and researchers involved in patient safety and/or patient empowerment;
- Industry and commercial bodies, including pharmaceutical, med-tech and ICT industry.

