

Seminar: The way towards large scale deployment of e-Health: Where do patients stand?

More information !

When? 23th January 2013

Where? Hotel Bloom, Rue Royale 205, 1210
Brussels

Why? This Seminar is an excellent opportunity to explore advances, and the 'state of the art' on patient involvement in eHealth at policy, strategic, and operational level and see how patients and patient organisations can become more involved in eHealth policies as well as in the design, implementation, and assessment of this innovative type of services. This seminar will also investigate the potential contribution of eHealth to patient empowerment and explore how eHealth affects patient health professional relationship, and the leadership and "connectivity" required to ensure that patients really benefit.

Who? This Seminar will involve approximately 60 patient leaders from across the EU wishing to become more engaged in the eHealth agenda at national and European level.
