

European Patients' Forum Newsletter

A strong patients' voice to drive better health in Europe

// SEPTEMBER 2016 ISSUE

After what we hope was a relaxing summer break for all of you, it is our pleasure to welcome you back, with this 50th issue of the EPF newsletter, the rentrée issue!

As you may remember from our last newsletter, EPF is organising a public conference on Patient Safety in the coming weeks. Entitled 'Patient & Family Empowerment for Better Patient Safety', the event will take place on the 08th and 09th of November in Brussels. The conference will address how empowered patients and carers can improve safety of healthcare as a whole. You will find further details and registration information below.

While summer continues to shimmer in Brussels, some important policy dossiers already resurfaced! EPF participated in late August to the European Commission public consultation on lay summaries of clinical trials, where we were represented at two events from the European Medicines Agency (EMA) in London.

EPF keeps its dedicated focus on access to healthcare with our online survey, gathering feedback from across diseases and Member States. Share your thoughts with us! The survey is open until the 31st of October.

The EUPATI project is still going strong! The second face-to-face training for patients took place recently in Barcelona. Once again a very productive get-together for expert patients from all over Europe. We will share more information in our next issue regarding sustainability plans for EUPATI.

Our Capacity Building Programme is central to EPF's strategic objective to develop solid and sustainable patient organisations. In September we organised a training workshop on transparency and ethics, a crucial matter for the credibility of patient organisations in Europe. You will also find an overview of the Capacity Building Programme so far, with an overview of our activities in 2017.

Tomorrow is around the corner, and at EPF we truly believe in the future European patients advocates! Our Youth Group gathered for its autumn Meeting in Utrecht, the Netherlands. The young leaders reported on their recent activities and prepared planning for 2017. It was the first meeting for Laura, a new member from Belgium! Read below her portrait, and discover why indeed you can just call her Laura.

We open this month our blog to the 'European Federation of Homeopathic Patients Associations (EFHPA)', our member, taking on our small questionnaire, introducing themselves and their objectives.

Finally, a warm welcome to our new colleague Selena Imerovic Hodzic, who joined our Brussels team as Project and Capacity Building Officer!

Warmest greetings,

Marco Greco, EPF President and Nicola Bedlington, EPF Secretary General

EPF CONFERENCE: HOW PATIENTS' AND FAMILIES' INVOLVEMENT CAN IMPROVE PATIENT SAFETY

On the 08th and 09th of November, EPF will organise a 2-day conference on patient safety, in Brussels. The event aims at exploring how the involvement of patients and their families could improve the current worrying figures on patient safety and health-related adverse events.
