

Name: Amina Berbić

Birth date: 25.02.1996.

Country: Bosnia and Herzegovina

Name of the Organization:

Pulmonary hypertension Serbia

About my Organization:

"Pulmonary Hypertension Serbia is a non-profit association of individuals and legal entities, established to achieve objectives in the field of improving, protecting, educating, and advocating for the rights of patients with pulmonary hypertension.

Since 2015, it has been a member of the national patient association PH Europe, based in Vienna

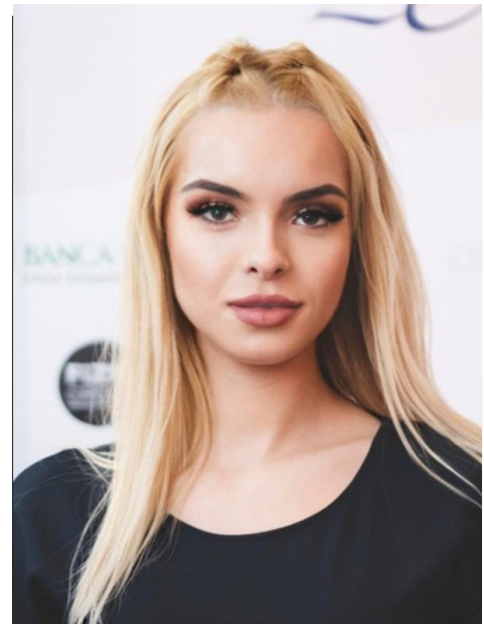

How to contact me:

E-mail: amina.be4@gmail.com

Facebook:

<https://www.facebook.com/amina.berbic>

.4/

About me:

Amina Berbić is a dedicated patient advocate with a focus on improving the lives of young patients facing health challenges, particularly in the context of pulmonary hypertension in Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Demonstrates exemplary leadership skills as a project manager, effectively coordinating efforts to drive positive change within patient organizations.

Actively involved in projects related to women's organizations and rare diseases, showcasing versatility and commitment to diverse patient communities.

Internationally engaged in the field of pulmonary hypertension, contributing actively to the global Steering board for pulmonary hypertension.

