About me:

- I'm working as an engineer (building and building technologies)
- I'm a master student in "renewable raw materials and renewable energies"
- I was diagnosed with epilepsy in 2014.
- I also have other chronic illnesses but I learned to live with it.
- I work on different projects to raise awareness, national and international.
I'm member of the Epilepsy & Pregnancy group from the IBE. I'm advocating for the German epilepsy association and the youth association.
- I'm also raising awareness with my Instagram account and point up many different problems people with chronic illness are dealing with
- My hobbies: soccer, music (singing, piano and guitar) and travelling
